Trabajo n°10

En esta clase seguiremos practicando sobre el tema anterior, ¿te acuerdas? El presente perfecto simple; Busca el trabajo 9 y tenlo a mano para consulta!

Con el present perfect se acostumbra a utilizar las siguientes expresiones de tiempo:

HOW LONG...? (cuánto tiempo / cuánto tiempo hace que / cuánto tiempo lleva/ por cuánto tiempo...)

Esta palabra interrogativa se utiliza para preguntar por la cantidad de tiempo en que algo viene sucediendo hasta ahora.

- ✓ How long have you been friends? (¿Cuánto tiempo hace que son amigos?)
- ✓ How long has your father had that car? (¿Hace cuánto tiempo tiene tu papá ese auto?)
- ✓ How long have you lived in this city? (¿Hace cuánto tiempo vives en esta ciudad?)

Para responder estas preguntas con HOW LONG, utilizaremos FOR y SINCE

FOR : significa "desde hace" o "durante" y se usa con un período de tiempo, por ejemplo: ten minutes, two hours, one day, a month, a year, a long time....

FOR + PERIODO DE TIEMPO

- ✓ I've waited for an hour (he esperado durante una hora)
- ✓ She has lived in Paris for a long time (ella vive en Paris desde hace mucho)
- ✓ We've worked in the same company for two years (trabajamos en la misma empresa desde hace dos años)

SINCE significa "desde" o "desde que" y se usa para referirnos cuándo la acción tuvo su comienzo, es decir desde qué año, fecha, mes, semana, día, etc. viene ocurriendo la acción. Es decir, se usa para señalar un momento concreto en el tiempo por ejemplo: 10 o'clock, Tuesday, 2nd January, August, 2019, we arrived, I was ten years old....

SINCE + INICIO/ PUNTO DE PARTIDA

- ✓ I haven't eaten anything since 10 o'clock (no he comido nada desde las 10)
- ✓ We haven't seen each other since 2001 (no nos hemos visto desde 2001)
- ✓ I've lived in Spain since I was ten years old (vivo en España desde que tenía 10 años)

Well, I've been here in Northampton, Massachusetts for exactly six months. It's hard to believe because so much has happened. I was pretty nervous before we left France but it's been fine since my first day. I think I'm lucky - I made friends with a girl at school named Elise. She is Canadian from Quebec so she speaks both French and English. We take a lot of the same classes and we've got along really well since we met. It feels as if I've known her for years! She's introduced me to other people, too, and that makes a big difference.

Last weekend four of us decided to go to Berkshire East – it's a ski resort. It's just a forty-minute drive from Northampton. Elise's mum drove us. We skied for a few hours and then we had Mac & Cheese Bites at the Crazy Horse Bar and Grill! (see pics)

It's great here, but there's one thing I really miss. I haven't had good French cheese for a long time. Mind you, they produce good cheese here, but it's not the same, really.

OK, I have to stop and do my science homework. My books have been in my bag since Friday and I've done nothing for my test tomorrow. A+A.
